Three-Way Tie Forces
Campus Election Runoff

Vote Again For Fine Arts Senator

A three-way tie for the senator to represent Fine Arts on the student council will necessitate another election -- the third this year.

According to Fred Rauch, election commissioner, Larry Peters, Claude Stearns and Margaret Bartole, each received one vote for the post in last Thursday's election. The election on Tuesday was the second of the term. The one previous was invalidated because of irregularities at the polls.

However, Thursday's election did settle the question of who would represent all of the schools and housing units on the campus for the school year but the Fine Arts senator.

Chicago Day
Here Oct. 31

The advantages of living and working in the Chicago area will be explained at Chigaco land Career Day is held Oct. 31 on campus. A record 27 firms and organizations -- five more than last year -- will cooperate in the program.

Exhibits will be erected in University Center ballroom. Representatives of the firms will be on hand to answer questions about Chicago to put them up for any of the 12,305 students who are expected to attend.

The Chicago sponsor is the Chicago Association of Commerce and Industry, which will have a central booth to tell about Chicagoland in general.

On the campus, Career Day is sponsored by the Student Government and Alpha Kappa Psi, professional business fraternity. It is included in the Fine Arts Division of Area Services.

And the Pan Helicon Council under organization division took home an honorable mention with "Marching to Victory."

In house decorations, women's division, second place went to La Casa and honorable mention to La Casa Manana. In the men's division, second place was won by Gamma Delta and Honorable mention to Bailey Hall.

Also in house decorations, second place for organizations went to Gamma Delta and Honorable mention to the Baptist Student Union.

Combined groups winning second place were Kellogg and Felts Halls. Honorable mention went to Group Housing 115 and 116.

Also in Thursday's election, Marcia Hamburger was named "Miss Freshman," and Scott H. Kame was selected for the title of "Mr. Freshman."

Miss Hamburger won in a field of 11 candidates. There were eight announced for the "Mr. Freshman" title.

Ann 157 ballots were cast for the senatorial representa-

"Babes In Toyland" mentioned earlier. The following were elected. Each is listed with the academic unit he or she represents.

Danny Parker, Communications; Bill Carl and George M. Hockenberry, for two positions in General Studies; Robin Carpenter, Education; Dennis Kircher, Technology; Janet Nelson, Home Economics.

Harold H. Garrett, Agriculture; Mickie Goldfeather, Liberal Arts and Sciences; and Jerome Furman, Business.

One position as representative of a living area senator was still to be filled. Jane Richey was named sena-

"Barefoot Clowntessa" Mimi
Mislays Her "Golden" Eggs

While spectators of the 1963 Homecoming Stage Show were undoubtedly worried that Mimi Hines might lose something during the course of the evening, their premonitions couldn't have been more accurate.

And although she had tried in vain to lay an egg during her performance, she didn't succeed until the curtain had fallen. And then she found the goose that laid the golden eggs. She laid a diamond one.
All-University Student Council
To Study 12 Subject Areas

The All-University Student Council, a newly created body to advise and recommend action on inter-campus student affairs, has set up an agenda of 12 study subjects for its consideration this quarter.

Such matters as the possibility of creating an inter-campus journalism council and writing one constitution to cover both campus student councils, will be scrutinized.

Jim Greenwood, Carbondale campus Councilman, said each of the subjects has been assigned to two members of the eight-man body for committee work. Carol Feirich, another Carbondale campus member, said other interested persons would be invited to express opinions while committee study was going on.

Trudy Kulesesa and William H. Murphy are the other two elected from the Carbondale campus. Kenneth W. Veith, Jr., chairman of the group and Ernest C. Hoffman, Martha Cotter, and Lyndell Leritz are the Edwardsville All-University Council members.

Following is a list of the subjects with the names of the Council members assigned to set up a study, Greenwood.

1. Student Judicial Committee--Leritz, Murphy.
2. Creation of an intercampus journalism council (possibly resulting in one year book and newspaper for the two campuses) --Kulesesa, Cotter.
3. Adoption of one constitution on campus for all Council student councils with the bylaws of each campus reflecting any necessary differences.--Hoffman, Greenwood.
4. Procedure followed by students transferring onto either of the two campuses. --Feirich, Leritz.
5. Student pay scale for both campuses. --Greenwood, Hoffman.
7. Future results of the new housing rules on off-campus students.--Kulesesa, Leritz.
8. Comparison of the student accreditation policy each campus. --Murphy, Hoffman.
9. Possible exchange of faculty members between the two campuses.--To be assigned later.
10. Establishment of an intercampus intermural athletic program.--Murphy, Cotter.
11. Adoption of a policy calling for a free-day before finals.--Kulesesa, Leritz.
12. Coordination of guest speakers and entertainment programs between the two campuses to include free movement of the students between the campuses for such events.--To be assigned later.

The Southern Players present Student Injured

In Scooter Crash

The condition of Frank W. Groesch, 23, Student Union bartender, was a motor scooter accident early Saturday morning, was described as "satisfactory" by Dr. G. L. W. Murray, medical officer for the Firmin De Sloge Hospital in St. Louis.

Groesch apparently was alone when his motor scooter hit a curbing near the Physical Plant about 2:30 a.m. Saturday. He first was taken to the Cardiobonde Clinic but was transferred to the St. Louis hospital, the Student Affairs Office reported.

Groesch, 23, in a senior at SIU and the son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard C. Groesch of Springfield.

Tass Cautions West On Proposed A-Force

The United States and its allies Monday that the proposed multinational nuclear defense force threatens to hinder progress in East-West peace negotiations.

"WON'T THEY BE SAFER OUT THERE?"

A statement by the Soviet news agency Tass, almost within hours after the return to Moscow of Premier Khrushchev from vacation, and Foreign Minister Andrei A. Gromyko from the United States, was thrust most severely at West Germany, which would be part of the Western force.

The statement was so stern in tone that it made Western diplomats here re-examine the significance of recent fresh hints on nuclear strength by the Berlin cadet, if U.S. and British troop convoys, and the even more recent gromyko that East-West disarmament negotiations were not going well.

TRUNG LAP, South Viet Nam

More than 4,000 Vietnamese troops, harassed by mine explosions, accidents and Communist snipers concealed in fields, along the tracts of jungle Monday and ended the day with almost empty hands.

The big task force had hoped to close a trap on two hard-core battalions — about 800 men — of Vietnamese guerrillas. Only 25 miles north of Saigon, the area — the "Ho Bo Zone," as Americans call it — is stubbornly controlled by the Communists as any in the country.

At the end of the day, 15 government troops, including one U.S. sergeant, were wounded and three were dead.

Pardon me if I sound as if the executive position I've landed deals with the whole future of the world.

It does.

Certainly, there's no organization today conducting more vital business than the business of the United States Air Force. And very few organizations that give a college graduate greater opportunities for responsibility and growth.

As an Air Force officer, you'll be a leader on the flight line, in the Air Force ROTC. But if you missed out on AFROTC, or if there's no unit on your campus, you can still apply for Air Force Officer Training School. This three-month course leads to a commission as a second lieutenant in the United States Air Force.

For more information about Air Force OTS, see your local Air Force representative.
X-Ray Equipment
Ordered From GE
For Technology

SIU has ordered General Electric X-ray diffraction equipment valued at $24,560 for use in its School of Technology research and instruction. GE will furnish the equipment to SIU at a special price of $12,000, according to W. A. Mann, regional vice-president of the firm.

Mann said the action "is prompted by the company's long established and continuing interest in the support of education."

Southern's technology program includes work in five major areas: engineering, applied science, engineering technology, industrial technology and industrial education.

Expressing gratitude to General Electric for the special price, SIU President Delyte W. Morris said the equipment will make possible instruction and related research which might not otherwise be possible.

First Patented In 1872:

SIU Physicist Says American Invented Radio Before Marconi

Credit historically given Guglielmo Marconi as inventor of radio is contested by a SIU physicist, who claims the honor rightfully belongs to a little-known American.

Otis B. Young, who became interested in the matter back in the 1930's when teaching a course in radio, claims documented proof that an obscure Washington, D.C., dentist named Mahlon Loomis sent wireless signals before Marconi was born.

Loomis' accomplishments, the SIU researcher says, are a matter of record; Loomis received a United States patent in July 30, 1872, on the basis of wireless transmission first accomplished in 1866. Marconi patented his wireless system in 1896, two years after his initial experiment.

Young, director of atomic and capacitor research at SIU, is quick to admit that Marconi's equipment was superior to that of Loomis.

SIU Wrestler
Wins Gold Medal

SIU athlete Larry Kristoff, Carbondale, apparently made a good decision a few months ago when he decided to forego a highly-promising football career at Southern in favor of sticking to his other athletic specialty, wrestling.

Kristoff has won the first place gold medal in heavyweight wrestling in a pre-Olympic meet held during the past week in Japan. His gold medal was one of 10 captured by Americans participating in the meet. Just one other top-flight honor was picked up by the Yanks, however. John Illard earned the light-heavyweight crown.

Southern's grappling coach, Jim Wilkinson, headed the American team in the matches.

Kristoff is a junior at SIU, and he gained national recognition in 1962 by claiming the National AAI heavyweight wrestling title, after he had been edged out for the championship in the NCAA finals.

BEAUTIFUL TOSST—Homecoming Queen Marcia Willock tosses the coin to see which team will get the kick-off in Saturday's game while SIU's Harry Babbitt looks on. Marcia worked her magic for the hometown—the Saluki's won the toss and elected to kick off.

About Those Letters

Our recent appeal for letters to the editor was a reasonably successful one. As we begin our fall term publication, at least one student has mounted the campus soapbox in nearly every session. The pleasures--keep those letters coming.

Brevity is a virtue--in letters as anywhere. So that we may use as many different letters as possible, we ask again that you restrict your letters to 250-word limit.

Discipline of ROTC Program Offers

Recently a letter in this paper attacked the compulsory AFROTC program. The author seemed to think the program serves no useful function, but I contend that it does.

By receiving discipline from one of the more student leaders to discipline himself. This helps him carry out his activities. If a person can't discipline himself, how can he learn to master anyone else?

The program teaches the student respect for his superiors, his country, and the men who fight for it. The program also helps the student when he enters the service by teaching him many things about military life.

True, putting a uniform on a man and teaching him to drill does not necessarily make him a soldier--but it helps. The more the student learns now, the better he will do in the Service.

As to shooting, I would venture to say that well over half the men are fairly proficient.

Bravo!

Editor: Bravo Bill Morel! An issue has been revived which needed reviving. The matter of compulsory military training on campus is one which understanding student eventually declare unacceptable. The ROTC unit on campus must soon lay down its arms and surrender caution, for the demands of the sensitive among us.

IRVING DILLARD

There’s a Rift in the Cloud

For an ex-president now in his 74th year, Dwight D. Eisenhower has been much in the news. He was recently asked about the Republican National field and said simply it is not true that he is “anti-Goldwater.” He has not said, “Against” any Republican candidate.

But the World War II commander in chief said he is “understandably” “reflective” on what Sen. Goldwater’s approach and philosophy mean to the country.

The thing toughs 43. The board of the Goldwater campaign is so organized that there will be a candidature. But the broad field now is no more

Ike a Past Master

The idea that Goldwater should sharpen his views is fine, and so, one, except possibly the man himself. But it is curious to find Dwight Eisenhower calling for clarification on the public sentence declaration of the late President.

Ike is a Past Master.

John Steinbeck, author of "Tortilla Face" and "Grapes of Wrath," spoke in Stockholm Thursday to receive Nobel Prize for Literature. This is part of what he said:

"... Such is the prestige of the Nobel Prize that this place where I stand that I am impelled, not to squeak like a grateful and apologetic mouse, but to roar like a lion out of pride and love. In one's time only the great and good men who have practiced their trade through the ages.

Literature was not promulgated to backsliding, but by the literate priesthood singing the glory of the great churches--nor is it a game for the choicest elect, the rim-borne and the unpracticed, for war against weakness and need, there are the real flag-flaps of hope and emulation.

I hold that a writer who has been contemporary in the perfectionability of man has no interest in membership in literature.

The present universal fear has been the result of a forward surge in our knowledge and dangers--the culmination of all our capital gains.

We have used up many of the powers we once ascribed to the mind.

Fearful and unprepared, we have assumed lordship over the life and death of the whole world.

The danger and the glory and the choice rest finally in the decision of the people..."
Wildcats Reel Under Pro-Type Saluki Attack

SIU Dominates In 27-0 Victory

Although SIU homecoming fans were deprived of a pre-game skydiving aerial show at McAndrew Stadium Saturday afternoon, they did bask in warm fall weather that saw the temperature soar considerably in the first quarter in the reflection of a fast-firing Saluki offense.

Southern pressed across three touchdowns so quickly in the opening 11 minutes that the visiting Northern Michigan Wildcats were reeling through the remainder of the game, SIU played it coy after the first bombardment, then added another touchdown in the fourth period to treat the alumni to a 27-0 crusher. The victory was the third this season by the Salukis, and their third straight after dropping their first two tilts.

Coach Carmen Piccone's fast, pressing pro-type offense was clicking with devastating precision, with sophomore quarterback Jim Hart, Morton Grove, calling the shots. Hart fired three touchdown passes in the game to eclipse the school record for one season. He now has eight scoring aerials, one more than Ron Winter produced in 1960.

It took an aroused defensive line, however, to give Hart his first chance in the opening stanza. The Saluki forward was made a pre-game decision pay off on shades, Southern had won the flip of the coin, and chose to defend the South goal, from which a strong wind was blowing. After allowing a Wildcat first down on two successive offensive penalties, SIU's line pounded through Southern's pursuing alignment and blocked Terry Nyquist's punt on the Northern 11.

Halfback Rich Weber picked up two on a quickie, then Hart stepped back into the pocket and spiraled a perfect bullet to Bonnie Shelton at the two, where Shelton shook off a tackle and stepped across to payday. Bobby Hight booted the conversion and SIU led with 9:45 to play in the quarter, 7-0.

Halfback Rich Weber picked up two on a quickie, then Hart stepped back into the pocket and spiraled a perfect bullet to Bonnie Shelton at the two, where Shelton shook off a tackle and stepped across to payday. Bobby Hight booted the conversion and SIU led with 9:45 to play in the quarter, 7-0.

Northern pulled another miscue just seconds later, as the kickoff was fumbled and recovered by Southern on the 17. A penalty set the Saluki back on the 22, but Hart found Harry Bobbitt and Illi Lepel for 21, then took it over on a keeper around right end. Hight's kick sailed wide, but Southern had a 13-0 lead after only a half quarter.

Three minutes added by and Southern again had possession, this time after charged Wildcat quarterback Stan Ferris and applied a vicious tackle 21 yards behind the scrimmage line. Lepel then topped off his defensive gem by covering Ferris' fumble on the Northern nine.
