Petition by Coeds Seeks Protection

A group of SIU coeds is charging Carbondale police with providing inadequate police protection at night. There is growing concern in the wake of recent assaults and the group is demanding weapons to ward off sexual attacks.

Judy Sink of Springfield, resident fellow at Wilson Manor, 708 W. Freeman, said a police spokesman told her that four policemen were in two cruisers at Carbondale from 7 p.m. to 1 a.m.

"We think that protection is totally inadequate," Miss Sink said. There are more than 2,000 women living off campus.

The resident fellow is circulating a petition that she hopes to hand Monday to Mrs. Anita Koo, supervisor of off campus housing.

The petition demands:

- Better lighting off campus
- More efficient off campus patrols, specifically in the University School playground area
- Classes in self-defense
- Availability of weapons, such as tear gas spray guns

Miss Sink said that the girls will consider boycotting night classes if steps are not taken.

"As long as the University schedules night classes, they should provide adequate protection," Miss Sink said.

'Dime Line' Drive To Begin Tuesday

Phi Kappa Tau social fraternity again will sponsor the Dime Drive as part of the annual March of Dimes Foundation Drive. On Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday in front of the Student Center, the fraternity will collect donations.

Last year's fraternity collected $540. This year's goal is to stretch the line from the Center to President Morris to tonight.

The line will be open from 8 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. each day.

Wayne Comstock, a 21-year-old senior majoring in Business Administration, is the SIU student of the week, the Office of Student Affairs announced.

Wayne Preston Comstock, 22, has been active in SIU activities since his arrival here in 1959.

A senior majoring in business, Comstock has won a national award for outstanding work as an advertising secretary of Delta Chi, was chairman of the Theta Xi Variety Show act, was Midway chairman of the Spring Festival, co-chairman of Parents', and has assisted on both the Obelisk and Student Week. Comstock lives at 1001 S. Main.

He plans to graduate in June and is engaged to Joyce Pace.

4th Game to Top 100 Mark

By Alan Goldfarb

Southern's basketball team won its fourth straight last night as the Salukis battered a rugged, but cold Fort Campbell squad, 111-63.

In going over the century mark for the fourth time this season, second night in a row— the Salukis ball hawked and fast broke on the Eagles all night.

In scoring the most points of the season, the Salukis played as a unit for the first time with an inspired brand of basketball to up their season's record to 8-5.

The out on the court in the first half and jumped out to an early 8-1 lead and coasted from there.

The Salukis had a well balanced scoring attack with 11 men getting into the scoring department— five hitting for double figures.

The Screaming Eagles were as cold as the Salukis were hot as they repeatedly missed long jumpers all night. These Eagles, who played their first game of the year last night, lost the ball a considerable amount of times either by throwing the ball away or having it stolen by the tight, aggressive Saluki defense.

Stevall played an aggressive first half— something he hasn't done in last three outings due to injured thigh. But the big 6-6 center had to leave the ball game with six minutes to go on the first stanza with a cut over his left eye.

Lindegren Records, Mails His Lectures

Tiny green plastic records are being airmailed from Puerto Rico to SIU every few days for incorporation in a new book already in process of publication.

Carl C. Lindegren, director of the SIU Biological Research Laboratory, is leaving for Puerto Rico with his research assistants to collect more plants for his forthcoming book, "Yeast Genetics."

So Lindegren records his Puerto Rico lectures, mails them back to the laboratory where Mrs. Jerry Lindegren and Mrs. Mary Garbun, his research assistants, fit them into the text of the book and send them to the publisher.

Sunday's Faculty Recital

Features Pianist, Violinist

The Department of Music will present a faculty recital Sunday at 4:00 p.m. in Shryock Auditorium.

Ann Spurbeck, violinist, and Bernard Shaak, pianist, will be featured.

Ann Spurbeck, continuing her studies at Indiana University, is not a regular member of the music staff on campus but has appeared with SIU chamber ensembles and the orchestra.

Shaak, a piano instructor at SIU since 1959, specializes in the classical approach. He studied under Robert Pace at Columbia University in New York and in 1961 appeared as piano soloist with the SIU symphony.

Will Gay Bortz of the music department was recently informed that his composition, "Quoets of Odyssey," for tenor and piano, received its premiere in Athens, Greece, on Monday.
President Johnson's Stereo Set Becoming Campaign Issue

WASHINGTON—Sen. Barry Goldwater, R-Ariz., said Friday that President Johnson should have realized that Robert C. Baker couldn't have afforded to give him an expensive stereo set on his salary as a Senate Democrat.

Goldwater scoffed at the president's explanation: "I don't think any administrative aide can afford that kind of set. If he's got more than his salary, I don't know what he's doing for his country." Johnson himself has not put his home on the market for sale and is expecting to get some money out of the sale.

WASHINGTON--The Senate Committee on Foreign Relations on Thursday the 10th, told a news conference that the Senate should not have done anything to get the Japanese government to help end the war in Indochina.

LONDON—President Johnson was addressing a mob.

Kuala Lumpur, Jan. 20—The vanguard of communist fighters is spreading through East Pakistan, causing concern to the new government there.

Campaign Issue

LONDON—U.S. Army, Gen. Robert F. Kennedy, said Friday that the」と believes the Indochina war will receive a new arrangement of troops with Malaysia in the campaign.

President Kennedy's campaign against the U.S. in Indochina is a publicity stunt to the new government.

10,000 Art Photos Used To Study Culture

By Ivan Goldman

A person inclined to make a first-hand study of the art of Benin, Africa, would be more successful going to Europe rather than the archeological source.

So says Phillip Dark, chairman of the Anthropology Department, who is currently making a detailed study of Benin art under a grant from the National Science Foundation.

Dark, a three-time visitor to Africa, said the British, former rulers of the area, sent most of the Benin art back to England at the turn of the century.

"The great majority of the carvings are now in museums and private collections all over Europe," he explained.

However, the noted anthropologist stresses the importance of coordinating the art study with a cultural study of Benin, which cannot be accomplished without actually visiting the Bini.

Governor Race, Election Bill Stir Illinois Politics

In a flurry of political and legislative action this week the Illinois Republican party was swamped around and the House passed a bill to provide for at-large election of state representatives.

2-Way Contest

CHICAGO—In a dramatic about face Friday, State Treasurer William J. Scott announced he will seek the Republican nomination for Illinois governor.

Hayon Robertson, Cook County Republican chairman, at the same time announced he was withdrawing from the race in favor of Scott.

The announcements were made at the two men at a news conference in the Cook County Republican headquarters.

The development was part of a busy realigning of forces caused by withdrawal of ailing Charles F. Carpenter, 2-Way picture was switched around and the House passed a bill to provide for at-large election of state representatives.

At-Large Voting

SPRINGFIELD, Ill.—Amid strong anti-Senate debate, the Illinois House unanimously passed Thursday a bill to provide for at-large election of state representatives in November.

The measure was passed 156-0 and forwarded to the Senate, where foes of the bill abstained.

Republican and Democratic leaders warned the Senate not to tamper with home rule. In many large cities houses become embroiled in an old feud which marred the windup of the 1953 session.

The Senate has a rival plan for the at-large election and influence over the election of a large number of candidates.

Basic differences between the two houses involve what kind of House would be selected and the number of nominees each party would supply.

The House plan calls for elections in the April 14 primary of delegates to party conventions in June. Each party would nominate up to 118 candidates for the 177 seats.

Unless legislation is signed into law before Jan. 30, an unlimited number of candidates should start filing for the House and create a chaotic April 14 primary.

Later Brown and Goldwater shook hands and Brown invited the senator to address a conference held to implement a plan on his next New Hampshire visit.

Goldwater, touring the Granite State in quest of votes in the March 10 presidential preferential primary, expressed confidence as he campaigned in towns, fire stations and schools.

Goldwater said in Conway he is running ahead of New York Gov.

Nelson A. Rockefeller in New Hampsire and that he is prepared to defeat President Johnson in November.

Poll Tax Ban in Federal Elections Ratified

WASHINGTON — An amendment was written into the Constitution for federal elections.

The South Dakota Senate ratified the 24th Amendment by a vote of 31-3. The House had approved it last week.

The House then became the 38th state to approve the amendment, ratification by three-fourths of the state is required.

Illinois was the first state to ratify the amendment, its legislature voted approval on June 14, 1952.

South Dakota’s action culminated a long fight sponsored by South­ erern senator, Speare L. Holland, a Florida Democrat.

The amendment provides that the right to vote in any primary or general election for president or vice president, or for senator or congressional candidate, shall not be denied because of failure to pay a poll tax or any other tax.

Only five states—Alabama, Arkansas, Mississippi, Texas and Virgina—now make poll-tax payments a requirement for voting.

Adoption of the amendment will not bar these states from continuing to require voters in state elections to pay a poll tax, since it applies only to federal elections. But whether this will be administratively feasible remains to be seen.

Goldwater Gives Students a ‘Lesson’

MOULTONDOO, N. H.—Sen. Barry Goldwater of Arizona brought his conservative political philosophy to New Hampshire’s north country and the way he chided a student for being unfami­ iliar with the constitution.

A Baltimore law student, art­ ritt Brown, 19, of Buffalo, N.Y.,

said the senator he doesn’t see how the federal government can guard human rights if states can grant them.

“If some of the colleges you fel­ ows attend paid more attention to the strength of the Constitution I’d feel a lot safer about the future of our country,” Goldwater said.

“Your doun’t know a student age that the rights not given to the federal government remain with the states, I think you better start studying.”

Johnston’s Budget

WASHINGTON — President Johnson gave Congress a one-two final program this week.

In his economic report Monday, the President predicted record prosperity for 1954 if Congress acts “now” on the $1 billion tax cut. He also warned against inflationary price rises and said he is making an “early warning system” by government agencies to guard against potentially inflationary threats and wage increases.

The President delivered his $97,9 billion budget on Tuesday. It called for $3.3 billion cut in Defense Department spending and a reduction of 27,000 civilian employees.

The Virginia Legislature, anticipating ratification of the anti-poll­ tax amendment, already has taken action designed to offset its effect, in the poll tax races.

The new Virginia law, in addition to maintaining the state’s $1.50 poll tax, also election, provided that anyone wishing to vote only in federal elections must file a certificate of residence six months in advance.

Paris to Peking

PARIS—France intends to launch a "Two Chinas" policy next week with the diplomatic recognition of Communist China, reliable French sources said Thursday.

Barring any complication, France will establish full relations with Peking, Tuesday and designate a Far East specialist, Jean Chau­ vel, as ambassador.

At the same time, so far as France is concerned, Paris will maintain the present relations with Nationalist China.

Informed sources in Taipei said however that Nationalist China already has notified some nations it will break off relations with France when Paris recognizes Peking.

Impressive Swim Team Looks For Third Win at Nebraska

SIU's swimming team, fresh from a big victory over the University of Cincinnati, will be looking for their third straight win of the season this afternoon when they meet Nebraska's Cornhuskers at Lincoln.

Coach Ralph Casey's squad has looked impressive in its first two dual meets of the season. The Salukis have won 19 of 22 events so far and are in the hunt for the Big Eight Conference championship.

Casey said the team will not be taking the meet lightly. "We are looking for a good test of our abilities," he said.

SIU's chances of winning the meet will depend on the performance of two freshmen who have emerged as key players for the team.

One is Larry Kristoff, a 177-pounder from Carbondale Community High School's Bowers Gymnasium and at 9 a.m. for first match.

The Daily Egyptian reserves the right not to publish all content.

LARRY KRISTOFF 'LIFTS AN OPPONENT

Unbeaten in 40 Dual Meets

Oklahoma State's Wrestlers Will Visit Southern Missouri

SIU's unbeaten wrestling team, riding on the wave of two consecutive dual meet victories, will face their toughest test of the season here Monday morning when they encounter Big Eight and Conference champion Oklahoma State University at 9:30 a.m.

The meet will be held in Carbondale Community High School's Bowers Gymnasium and will start at 8 p.m.

Coach Jim Wilkinson's squaddies, who are ranked by Bloomquist State College 17-14 last weekend, will face the task of holding off a pack of powerful Cowboys who have had 48 consecutive opponents defeated with naught.

The Cowboys, fourth best in National Collegiate Wrestling last year and a perennial national power, haven't lost a dual meet since 1959 and have handed the Salukis overwhelming defeats in their last two meetings.

Wilkinson will call out four seasoned veterans and a number of talented sophomores and juniors to halt the highflying Cowboys from Stillwater, Okla. Performers for the Salukis this season include senior heavyweight Tadda Haas, and skilled sophomores Tadda Haas and Robert McGregor who wrestles in the 177-pound division, to be the best sophomores he has ever coached.

According to SIU's Wilkinson, who admits that OSU has one of the finest squads he has ever seen, but feels they can be beaten, claims that the highlight of the meet will be in the heavyweight event where James and Kristoff will match talents. "Just seeing these two great competitors wrestle is worth the price of admission," said Wilkinson.

James and Kristoff are certainly no strangers. Last year the Oklahoman defeated the Saluki standout for a berth on the Pan American Games team while Kristoff edged James for the AAU heavyweight crown and stopped his bid for a spot on the American wrestling squad which competed in Japan last summer.

In dual meet competition this year the Cowboys are 1-0. They demolished defending national collegiate champion Oklahoma 23-13.

Peruvian Olympic Team Falls As Southern Scores 100 to 72

Southern's cogars certainly didn't have one of its better games Thursday night, but it still managed to come up with 100 points as a sparse crowd watched the Peruvians shrug the Pan American Olympics, 100-72 in Bowen Gym.

The Peruvians, who are yet to win in the United States, didn't go down easily, however, and displayed an harassing zone defense which seemed to bother the Salukis all night.

SIU had a tough time popping out of the outside and managed to get inside on drives and tip-ins. The Peruvians had 26 fouls called against them (three players fouled out) with the Salukis capitalizing on many three point plays.

You would never have known that both teams exchanged gifts before the game by the way the Peruvian coach Jim Wilkinson exchanged pleasantries with the officials on several occasions.

Scoring:

SIU-Leote 16, Govin 15, Ramsey 14, Henry 11, Elden Brigham 9, George McNeill 9, Lloyd Stoval 8, Boyd O'Neal 8, Duane Warning 8, Thurman Brooks 2, Eddie Ebytee 2.

For Third Win at Nebraska

SIU's swimming team, fresh from a big victory over the University of Cincinnati, will be looking for their third straight win of the season this afternoon when they meet Nebraska's Cornhuskers at Lincoln.

Coach Ralph Casey's squad has looked impressive in its first two dual meets of the season. The Salukis have won 19 of 22 events so far and are in the hunt for the Big Eight Conference championship.

Casey said the team will not be taking the meet lightly. "We are looking for a good test of our abilities," he said.

SIU's chances of winning the meet will depend on the performance of two freshmen who have emerged as key players for the team.

One is Larry Kristoff, a 177-pounder from Carbondale Community High School's Bowers Gymnasium and at 9 a.m. for first match.

Unbeaten in 40 Dual Meets

Oklahoma State's Wrestlers Will Visit Southern Missouri

SIU's unbeaten wrestling team, riding on the wave of two consecutive dual meet victories, will face their toughest test of the season here Monday morning when they encounter Big Eight and Conference champion Oklahoma State University at 9:30 a.m.

The meet will be held in Carbondale Community High School's Bowers Gymnasium and will start at 8 p.m.

Coach Jim Wilkinson's squaddies, who are ranked by Bloomquist State College 17-14 last weekend, will face the task of holding off a pack of powerful Cowboys who have had 48 consecutive opponents defeated with naught.

The Cowboys, fourth best in National Collegiate Wrestling last year and a perennial national power, haven't lost a dual meet since 1959 and have handed the Salukis overwhelming defeats in their last two meetings.

Wilkinson will call out four seasoned veterans and a number of talented sophomores and juniors to halt the highflying Cowboys from Stillwater, Okla. Performers for the Salukis this season include senior heavyweight Tadda Haas, and skilled sophomores Tadda Haas and Robert McGregor who wrestles in the 177-pound division, to be the best sophomores he has ever coached.

According to SIU's Wilkinson, who admits that OSU has one of the finest squads he has ever seen, but feels they can be beaten, claims that the highlight of the meet will be in the heavyweight event where James and Kristoff will match talents. "Just seeing these two great competitors wrestle is worth the price of admission," said Wilkinson.

James and Kristoff are certainly no strangers. Last year the Oklahoman defeated the Saluki standout for a berth on the Pan American Games team while Kristoff edged James for the AAU heavyweight crown and stopped his bid for a spot on the American wrestling squad which competed in Japan last summer.

In dual meet competition this year the Cowboys are 1-0. They demolished defending national collegiate champion Oklahoma 23-13.

Peruvian Olympic Team Falls As Southern Scores 100 to 72

Southern's cogars certainly didn't have one of its better games Thursday night, but it still managed to come up with 100 points as a sparse crowd watched the Peruvians shrug the Pan American Olympics, 100-72 in Bowen Gym.

The Peruvians, who are yet to win in the United States, didn't go down easily, however, and displayed an harassing zone defense which seemed to bother the Salukis all night.

SIU had a tough time popping out of the outside and managed to get inside on drives and tip-ins. The Peruvians had 26 fouls called against them (three players fouled out) with the Salukis capitalizing on many three point plays.

You would never have known that both teams exchanged gifts before the game by the way the Peruvian coach Jim Wilkinson exchanged pleasantries with the officials on several occasions.

Scoring:

SIU-Leote 16, Govin 15, Ramsey 14, Henry 11, Elden Brigham 9, George McNeill 9, Lloyd Stoval 8, Boyd O'Neal 8, Duane Warning 8, Thurman Brooks 2, Eddie Ebytee 2.

Peru-Raul Daerte 27, Ricardo Daarte 23, Thomas Sangio 13, Simon Paradets 8, Enrique Daarte 8, Francisco Saldarriaga 2, Oscar Benitez 2, Oscar Sevilla 2, Jorge Vargas 2, Manuel Vigo 0.

Smith Hall Coeds to ‘Slave’
For Warren Hall Men Today
Two Thompson Point residence halls, Warren and Smith, will join today for a slave day.
The boys from Warren Hall previously served as slaves for the girls of Smith Hall, and Saturday’s exchange is a turnaround.
The girls will take their places on the auction block at one o’clock and will serve their high-bidding master until four.
Slaves will perform such tasks as vacuuming, shining shoes, scrubbing floors, washing windows, and “just about anything,” according to Alan Ashton, social chairman of Warren Hall.

Forestry Club
Will Meet Tuesday
The SIU Forestry Club will meet at 7:00 p.m., Tuesday in Room 209 of the Agriculture Building.
The meeting will be highlighted by a talk on Latin America and slides depicting the action of a bull fight by Seymour Somberg, associate professor of forestry.

Saluki Gymnasts Capture 21st Straight Over Mankato St.
Mankato State racked up the most points scored against Southern’s gymnastic team in three years yesterday afternoon but it wasn’t enough to stop the Salukis from capturing their 21st dual meet victory in a row, 64-47.
“We just might lose it” (the meet) smiled coach Bill Hladik.
He was not too serious of course but he was worrying about his top man Rusty Mitchell being confined to the bench for disciplinary reasons.
Nevertheless, the Salukis won five of the seven events with Bill Wolf coping three firsts. Brother Denny took one first place honor as did Steve Pasternak.
Bill Wolf scored firsts in the free exercise, high bar, and still rings competition while Denny had an easy time on the parallel bars. Pasternak had an even easier time winning his second straight state horse trophy.

Meade was shorthanded because of the loss of Mitchell and John Probeck (for the same reasons as the former) and used Pasternak and John Rush on the tramp. Rush made his first appearance of the year but his knee gave way again. Although unimpressive, Pasternak scored his second straight fourth on the tramp. Pasternak had never worked the tramp before last week.
Bill Hladik, Chuck Woerz, Ken Weigand and Henry Schaefermeyer made their first appearance of the year in dual meet competition.
Hladik tied for fourth in free exercise, Woerz placed fourth in tumbling, Weigand took third, finishing second on the parallel bars and Schaefermeyer closed second on the horse.

Cagers Coast Home
Over Eagle Troops
In the second half the Salukis picked up where they left off in the first stanza and reeled off 18 straight points as Joe Ramsey hit for 11 quick points.
Eldon Bigham played his finest game of the campaign as he led the Salukis offense on numerous fast breaks which broke the Eagles stride.
The paratroopers were probably hurting more because of the absence of their high scoring guard, Stuthard. Sherrard was left at the Kentucky Army base because of military duty.
Sherrard’s loss probably told on the Eagles as they were cold all night with a .313 shooting percentage. The Salukis hit for a hot .475 clip.
Ramsey had a fine scoring night as he led all scorers with 21 points — 15 coming in the Salukis blasting second half.
