Member of the American Psychological Association, author of the "Evolutionary Psychology of Feeling" and "Essays on Literary Art." Pages, 44. Boards. Price, 40 cents (2s.).

A Terse Statement of Psychological Facts

Designed to give to beginners a direct insight into the subject and familiarity with its methods. The student is told as little as possible, but is allowed to learn for himself by simple observation and experiment.

"A capital little primer . . . printed in bold type . . . with twenty-six blank pages of stout paper for the scholar's notes and exercises . . . Treats the most elementary principles of psychology . . . in the semi-conversational style that suggests the practised teacher." Literary World, London.

"Invaluable to teachers."—Canadian Teacher.

History of Modern Philosophy in France

BY

LUCIEN LÉVY-BRUHL

Maitre de Conférence in the Sorbonne. Professor in the École Libre des Sciences Politiques.

With twenty-three gravure and half-tone portraits of French philosophers, from rare and classical sources. Also a Bibliography of Modern French Philosophy. Handsomely bound, printed on antique paper, with wide margins. Pp., 500. 8vo. Price, $3.00 (12s.).

"A more attractive book than this it has seldom been our pleasure to read. Paper, type, binding, and especially the portraits, contribute to make a sumptuous volume. But its mechanical perfection is the smallest element of its value. Any one who expects to find this either a dry or an inexact or an incomplete book will be most agreeably disappointed. To every one of competent philosophical knowledge or curiosity, it will prove both instructive and entertaining."—The Methodist Review.

"The portraits are admirably reproduced."—Literature.

"It is a remarkably handsome volume. . . . The illustrations are truly masterpieces of art."—Chicago Israelite.

The Ananda Temple.

Greatest of the Burmese temples at Pagan, in four styles of architecture, Greek and Buddhistic. Eleventh century.
A PLACE FOR OUR EX-PRESIDENTS.

BY THE HON. CHARLES CARROLL BONNEY.

UNDOUBTEDLY the American people would be glad to make some appropriate provision for all surviving Ex-Presidents of the United States, and the present seems a favorable time for the agitation of this matter. It is therefore respectfully urged that without distinction of party but as a patriotic service, an amendment to the National Constitution be adopted without unnecessary delay, and submitted to the several States for ratification, providing that all such Ex-Presidents shall be ex-officio Honorary Members for life of the Senate of the United States, with all the rights, privileges, immunities, and compensation of a Senator, except that such honorary members shall not vote upon any question. Of course the voting power of the Senate would not be disturbed by the proposed change.

Such an amendment would secure to the country the benefit of the experience and wisdom of the Ex-Presidents and would give them an honorable and dignified position in which, there is no doubt, they would be glad to continue to serve the people.

The advantages of such a course are so obvious and so many, and the absence of grounds for objection is so noteworthy that it seems as though little argument or effort would be required to carry this suggestion into full effect. Indeed, there is no good reason why the State legislatures should not have the amendment before them for action next winter.

It would require a vote of two-thirds of each House of Congress to pass the proposed amendment; and a ratification by three-fourths of the States to make it a part of the Constitution. May we not hope that the next session of Congress will be distinguished by the adoption of the proposed amendment?
