To read The Journal of Religion is to keep in the vanguard of those who are thinking about the problems of present day religious life.

This non-sectarian periodical provides for its readers an unprejudiced, critical account of modern religious thought. It attempts to reveal the inner reality of religion, rather than to defend a doctrinal system. It consistently avoids cant, dogma, technical abstruseness; and constantly emphasizes the interrelationship of religious life and social environment.

This scholarly journal is indispensable to the serious reader interested in religion as a living, spiritual reality in society, in history, and in individual experience.

The Journal of Religion is edited by Shirley Jackson Case with the cooperation of the Divinity Faculty and Conference of the University of Chicago. It is published quarterly at the subscription price of $3.00 a year.

If you wish to examine The Journal of Religion a sample copy will be mailed you free upon request.
